1. PURPOSE

- 1.1. The purpose of the Recruiting and Screening guideline is to support safe recruitment and formation processes for ministry and service roles in the Church Community within the Archdiocese.
- 1.2. The guideline aims to ensure personnel have current clearances and checks relevant to their role and are aware of the safeguarding policy and guidelines.
- 1.3. The Archdiocese has a responsibility to develop and support personnel to enhance risk mitigation and to have the right people in the right roles with the right knowledge.

2. SCOPE

- 2.1. This guideline applies to:
 - 2.1.1. Clergy, Religious Brothers and Sisters, Seminarians, Employees, Church Workers, Volunteers; and
 - 2.1.2. Contractors and Third-Party Users of Church Property, where necessary.

3. PRINCIPLES

- 3.1. The guiding and essential belief that is at the heart and foundation of the social teaching of the Church is the sacredness and dignity of the human person as created in the image and likeness of God (Gn 1:27).
- 3.2. A strong commitment to safeguarding underpins the Church's recruitment, professional development and screening processes that promote the common good and lead all to the fullness of human life (John 10:10).
- 3.3. Awareness of safeguarding responsibilities, supervision, mentoring and education for those engaged in ministry or service in the Church supports and encourages the full and active participation of personnel.

4. STANDARDS AND GUIDANCE

Archdiocesan Agencies, Offices, Organisations, Ministries and Parishes can build a culture of safety by ensuring people working with children and adults are suitable and supported to reflect safeguarding values in practice.

Practices include, but are not limited to:

4.1 Recruiting

- When recruiting for positions (paid or unpaid) a zero tolerance to abuse is made explicit in advertising.
- Interview questions include an assessment of a candidate's commitment and understanding of safeguarding.
- Recruitment includes assessing the role for the expected level of contact with children and/or adults at risk.
- Job descriptions include a commitment to safeguarding.
- Responding to concerns about a person's suitability to work with children and/or adults at risk.
- Recruiting procedures are fully documented.

4.2 Screening

- A zero tolerance to abuse is explicit in the screening of personnel and is in line with the Archdiocese Screening and Monitoring Policy. All Clergy, Religious Brothers and Sisters, Seminarians, Employees, Church Workers, Volunteers; and Contractors and Third-Party Users of Church Property, where necessary adhere to the Archdiocese Screening and Monitoring Policy which includes:
 - A Safeguarding Induction
 - A Safeguarding Personal Declaration
 - A current Working with Children Card (if in child-related work)
 - A National of Volunteer National Police Clearance (if applicable)
- Screening requirements adhere to state legislative requirements of a Working with Children Card for those in child-related work and an NDIS Workers Check for those providing NDIS supports and services.
- Conducting referee checks for those shortlisted for church roles.
- Employee annual performance reviews include a focus on safeguarding responsibilities.
- Supervision and mentoring occur and include a focus on safety and integrity.
